Heraldine Moore

My dear Mr. Moore

I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this finds you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am very truly yours

The Tiger

The Year Book of
Beardstown High School
Beardstown, Illinois

Published by
The Senior Class
1937-1938

Foreword

Once more an Annual Staff has completed its work, and the results of its labors is in your hands. In this Tiger we have reviewed the steps of preparation over which we have journeyed from Freshmen to Alumni. We cannot help but feel there are errors in its pages; however, we have become enthusiastic and have even dared hope you will cherish it.

Dedication

To Mr. McAllister, who began school with us, has helped us to build our paths on which to begin our travel of life, and has taught us how to meet its many obstacles we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1938 yearbook.

In Memoriam

Miss Alice Kricke

The influence of a good teacher lives on forever. Miss Kricke was a good teacher, a wise councilor, and a sympathetic and kind friend to all those who knew her. Her jovial smile and pleasant words endeared her to everyone.

Beardstown High School

We're loyal to you, Beardstown High,—
Our Tigers are true, Beardstown High,— We'll back you to stand
'Gainst the best in the land,
For we know you have sand, Beardstown High,—
Rah! Rah!

So crack out that ball, Beardstown High,—
We're backing you all, Beardstown High,—
Our team is our fame protector,
On! boys for we expect a vict'ry from you, Beardstown High!
Che-he! Che-ha! Che-ha-ha-ha!
Che-he! Che-ha! Che-ha-ha-ha!
Beardstown High! Beardstown High! Beardstown High!

Bring out that dear old Black and Orange anew,
Lead on your sons and daughters fighting for you;
Like men of old, on giants
Placing reliance,
Shouting defiance,—

Os-key-wow-wow!
Amid the broad green plains that nourish our land,
For honest labor and for learning we stand,
And unto thee we pledge our heart and hand,
Dear Alma Mater Beardstown High.

Senior Class History

In the fall of 1934, our all-star class of 117 started out on a long journey, that lead us over many rocky and treacherous places and around many curves, but would eventually lead us to Success. With our Motto, "One For All and All For One," we began on September 1, all pulling together to show the Seniors, who had already traveled over three laps of their journey that "Freshies" could do great things also. We elected Jack Hagerty as President, George Wessel, Vice President, Homer Welch, Secretary and Jim Doyle, Treasurer. Irene Patterson and Frank Wichser were selected to represent us on the Social Committee. We showed our great talents by giving the St. Patrick's program under the able direction of our sponsor, Miss Swordes. As a whole, the Freshman class showed themselves able to go great things by taking part in extra-curricular activities.

In '35 we came back, feeling very experienced and wise, and teasing the poor Freshmen; never letting them know, of course, that even we could remember how scared we were a year before. We started the second portion of our journey out right by electing Dorothy Daugherty as President, Dorothy Hubbell, Vice President, Pauline McGovern, Secretary, and Dorothy Davis, Treasurer. Our representatives on the Social Committee were Doris McAllister and Jim Davis. Under the direction of Miss Swordes, we again presented the St. Patrick's program and were quite successful in entertaining the upper classmen. As the year wore on, members of the class entered the G. A. A., F. F. A., orchestra, band and glee club. Others showed talent in the commercial field. By the end of the second lap of our journey, we had climbed many hills and advanced halfway on the slippery road that we had undertaken to travel, George Schaeffer, Eldred Beemer, Jack Hagerty, Bob Hierman had come forth into the public light by being in the Agriculture play, "Growing Pains," right along with the mighty Seniors and Juniors. Another member of our class, Dorothy Day, merits no little amount of praise and glory for having distinguished herself in band. She won first place in the State Contest and was recommended to the National where she went and there placed third, thereby making us quite proud to have one of our classmates gain so much publicity. After having accomplished such marvelous things, we adjourned for a three months rest, which was enjoyed by everyone.

In '36 we came back together once more to begin our third trip, which was to bring us nearer home. Since Dorothy Daugherty had guided us so remarkably well on our second trip, we showed our superior judgment by electing her again. Vice President Homer Welch, Secretary Irene Patterson and Treasurer Eldred Beemer pulled together in making our Junior year more successful than the first two. Jean Todd and Frank Wichser took their places on the Social Committee and with their help the Committee gave several novelty parties, among them the "Get-Acquainted Party," and also one on Friday the 13th. Under the direction of Miss Brodman, our class presented the Junior Play, "Out Of The Fog," which was indeed, something for our class to be proud of. The following members took part: Doris McAllister, Eldred Beemer, Dorothy Hubbell, Dorothy Daugherty, Jack Hagerty, Harold Fast, Homer Welch, Mary Clarice Minks, Dorothy Day, John O'Neal, Jack Foster, Bill Murray, and Jane Chambers. Five of our girls showed their ambitions by taking part in the Commercial Contest. Dorothy Davis, Dorothy Hubbell, Ruth Anderson, Irene Patterson and Marjorie Bolton were the 70 word shorthand contestants. Edwin Brannan, George Schaeffer and Floyd Carls went in for F. F. A. contests. Many of the boys helped the good work along by going out for football and basketball. The crowning point of the year was the Junior-Senior Reception, which transported us to Holland. Our class, together with our sponsor, Miss Cross, assisted by Miss Greve, worked hard for many long weeks striving to produce a startling effect on the Seniors whom we were entertaining, and when the big night finally arrived, we were amply rewarded by the compliments and the "ohs" and "ahs" as the Seniors entered into the gymnasium which had been transformed from a huge bare room into a beautiful Dutch Land.

In '37 on a beautiful autumn day, 112 of us came back, ready for the last lap of our journey. We realized that we must finish preparing ourselves for the "Future" which we knew we must face before many more months. We were more firmly resolved than ever to stick by our Motto, "One For All and All For One," so we elected an executive committee consisting of Jack Hagerty as President, Eldred Beemer, Vice President, Dorothy Davis, Secretary and Irene Patterson, Treasurer. George Wessel and Mary Clarice Minks were appointed to the Social Committee. Miss Cross again acted as our sponsor. Many Seniors entered whole-heartedly into extra curricular activities as they realized that this was the last year they would spend in the dear old B. H. S. The high point of the year was the Senior Play, entitled "Gun Shy." It was splendidly presented by the following cast: Jim Doyle, Lois Treadway, Geraldine Moore, Robert Stanley, Donald Kirby, Homer Welch, Clarence Reither, Lee Turley, Mary Clarice Minks, and Frank Wichser. Many members of the class also took part in the Play Tournament sponsored by Miss Brock. We are quite proud of three of our classmates who were rated as having done superior acting. They were Velma Vathauer, Lee Turley and Dorothy Gordon. The play, "Cabbages" was selected to enter the District Play Contest. Members of that play are as follows: Lee Turley, Velma Vathauer, Margaret Smashey, Dorothy Hubbell, Robert Stanley, Lois Treadway and Homer Welch. The boys of our class have made us quite proud this year, too, by their splendid performance in football and basketball. John Musgrove, Jack Foster, Bill Murray, Art Jones, John Buescher, Homer Welch, Clarence DeCamp, Jack Hagerty, Harold Fast, John Duncan, Bob Hierman, Eldred Beemer helped to accomplish great things for us in that field. They won the Spoon River Championship in football and the basketball team won the Regional Tournament. Others in the Senior Class have taken part in band and glee club. The last days of our journey will be busy ones for they will include the Junior-Senior Reception, Senior Picnic, Class Day, Baccalaureate, Commencement, and the Alumni Banquet. Our journey is now at a close. We have traveled together over many hard places but, pulling together, we have mounted every steep hill that rose in front of us and rounded every curve successfully. We will soon part from our beloved school, never to assemble together again when the whistle blows in the fall, but never will we forget those four delightful years, for now that they are over, and we know that we shall never have a other chance to re-live them, we realize that our school days are indeed the "happiest days of our life."

To the Class of 1938

I have a special interest in the class of 1938. Together we entered Beardstown High School, four years ago, and together we have worked through this four year period, which for many of us has passed all too quickly.

It is my hope that you will be able, as you leave High School to translate into reality many of the worthy hopes and ideals that have been born in your hearts and minds during your four years here. May you take as your guiding principle that inscription which appears on the great seal of one of our middle western states, "Ad astra per aspera" which freely translated means, "We will achieve success even though difficulties may beset us."

Long after you have forgotten many of the details of fact which you have learned here, may you still treasure in your minds that intangible "something" which these four years have given you. Again, it is my earnest hope that your High School days, often characterized as "the happiest days of life" may bring for each of you in the days that are ahead, greater happiness, higher attainment, more useful living and worthier citizenship.

Junior Class History

Our class started out this year with Robert Long, Stanley Cox, Harriet Stephenson and Roberta Siekmann acting as officers and Jayne Craven and Pat Cowen still working diligently on the Social Committee.

Our Junior year was filled with varied activities: Together with the class officers, social committee and Maxine Piehler our class ring was selected this year. The annual Junior Play, occurring on February 28, was a three act comedy entitled "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" and was enjoyed immensely by everyone. We participated in many outside activities such as the G. A. A., F. F. A., band, literary contests, athletics and glee clubs.

Our main thoughts, though, were centered on ways of raising money for the Junior and Senior reception given on May 16. We had to work even more industriously than during previous years, for reception decorations were more expensive because they were required to be non-inflammable.

The committees that acted to raise reception funds were: During the football season hot dogs were sold by Harriet Stephenson, Mary Thomas, Jean Foster and Jayne Craven. Ice-cream bars and pop were sold at basketball games by Mary Jean Turnbull, Mary Thomas, Virginia Nagel, Edith Vallery, Kathryn Dooling, Maxine Piehler, Carl Wubker and Harry Alford. The proceeds of all these sales went into the class treasury.

During the year to help out our growing treasury, pencils and magic slates were sold by Harry Alford, Lyle Austin, Dorothy Avery, Ernest Carls, Stanley Cox, Jayne Craven, Betty Dailey, Freda Ellen Daniels, Betty Doran, Jean Foster, Helen Gardner, Margaret Hager, Bill Hansmeyer, Donald Krohe, Dorothy Krohe, Phyllis

We are very proud of our class and think that we have accomplished much in our three years of High School, and are looking forward with pleasure to our Senior year.

We wish to thank Miss Brodman, our sponsor, Miss Greve, Miss Dawson and Mr. Bartlett for helping us make a success of our Junior year in High School.

We entered B. H. S. in '36 with nearly 130 classmates. Our first class meeting was held to appoint officers for the year. Miss Brodman was selected for our class sponsor. Other officers appointed were: Robert Gramman, President; Betty Philippi, Vice President; Glen Kupfer, Treasurer; and Doris Walker, Secretary. Clarice Landreth and Fred Wright were selected for the Social Committee.

Eleven boys in our class were on the basketball team and twelve on the football squad. Many were represented in the F. F. A. and G. A. A. Nancy Jean Hanks and Doris Walker represented the class in Mrs. Smith's Contest chorus. Melba Ivemeyer was a member of the school orchestra. A great number of the class were in the boys' and girls' Glee Club. We were in the Annual sales contest and the activity ticket contest as well as the band. We gave the assembly program in April.

This year we selected for our officers: Robert Gramman, President; Jeanette Sudbrink, Vice President; Glen Kupfer, Treasurer; Doris Walker, Secretary. Clarice Landreth and Jerry Mahnken were chosen for the Social Committee. Clarice left us during the year so Christine Kuhlmann took her place. Miss Grau was appointed for our class adviser. After her resignation, Mr. Wayland steered us on our voyage.

There were not quite so many to continue the voyage this year but we carried on the same as usual. We entered the activity ticket and Annual contests. Our class was well represented on both the basketball and football teams. Smith Von Fossen was Jeanette Sudbrink and Smith Von Fossen won first place in the local try-outs. Robert Hoffman won first prize for a report of the annual Ag. Club Educational Tour. This year Christine Kuhlmann, Nancy Hanks, Marguerite Black, Melba Ivmeyer, Doris Walker, Ruth Brown and Katherine Wessel represented us in Mrs. Smith's contest chorus.

We feel that with the assistance of our class sponsors, Miss Grau and Mr. Wayland, that we have accomplished something this year and we are looking forward to the next two years, Junior and Senior, hoping to be a credit to B. H. S.

Freshman Class History

September 1st, 150 Freshmen entered the doors of B. H. S. In the early part of the month a meeting was called for the purpose of selecting officers. They are as follows: President, Reta Mary Caldwell; Vice-President, Dick Murray; Secretary, Patsy Murray; Treasurer, Margaret Grant. The members of the Social Committee were Harriett Bell and Robert Phelps. Miss Swordes, our Class Sponsor helped us in many ways.

Several members of our class were active in both girl's and boy's glee club, as well as the band. A number of boys turned out for both football and basketball, and made a good showing. The Freshman basketball team went to the Taylorville Tournament the first time for a good many years. A number of girls entered the G. A. A. and did good work.

There were two contests: the selling of activity tickets, and the selling of Annuals.

The Freshman program that was given April 1, 1938 is as follows: Dance duet, Helen Brady and Evelyn Boice; Guitar solo, Dale Hager; Piano solo, Margaret Ha-

* indicates the membership in the contest chorus.

The music which you no doubt noticed issuing from the auditorium on certain mornings from 8 to 8:45 was not from a radio but was merely the girls of the Girls' Glee Club practicing their songs, under the patient direction of Mrs. W. G. Smith. The girls practiced religiously all winter, and were finally given a chance to prove their worth one evening late in March. The occasion to which we refer was the Spring Festival held on the evening of March 24, 1938. At this Festival the combined Glee Clubs of Beardstown, Virginia, Ashland and Chandlerville sang several numbers.

Last year the contest chorus, which is chosen from the Glee Club, entered the District Contest and was finally judged "Superior" in the state meet. A group of girls were chosen again this year to sing in the contest. The girls practiced diligently in the hope of winning some recognition in the contest in 1938.

The girls in the Glee Club under the competent leadership of Mrs. Smith, have put forth a performance of which they may well be proud. Mrs. Smith is to be highly complimented upon the successful operation of so important an organization as the Glee Club. Their faithfulness in practice, and their cooperation is to be commended. Much of the success of the Glee Club was due to Claranne Von Fossen, the accompanist who attended every practice.

This spring the girls had their annual picnic and concert at Hickory Church. They also gave a concert here in town. The Seniors sang at Baccalaureate service and for Senior Day. These activities will wind up the year as far as the Glee Club is concerned.

Boys' Glee Club

Top row: Paul Thomas, Art Jones, Stanley Cox, Martin Vauthauer, Phillip Beghtol, Smith Von-Fossen, Charles Little, George Wessel, Edward Wessel, Milton LaMaster, Bob Lanier, Walter Shepherd. 2nd row: Glen Kupfer, Bertrum Phelps, Eugene Titus, Durward Fry, Mrs. W. G. Smith, Melba Ivmeyer, Bill Baker, Bill Kaffenberger, Jack Comeford, Dick Murray, Pat Cowan, Jack Horner, Carl Ed, Bill Taylor.

The Boys' Glee Club, although not so large as the Girls' Glee Club sang as lustily and merrily as did the girls. They met the third period on every Monday and Friday morning. Claranne Von Fossen and Melba Ivmeyer were the accompanists, and their loyalty has been regarded by the thanks of the boys.

In February, the boys sang a number of selections before the Junior High School Assembly. The Junior High students were an appreciative audience, and they were well entertained.

The Glee Club sang in the Musical Festival on March 24th along with the Boys' Glee Clubs from Chandlerville, Virginia, and Ashland.

Some of the songs practiced during the year were: Geoffrey O'Hara's "Hunters Loud Halloo" and "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride;" from the opera "Pinafore"—"We Sail the Ocean Blue;" Herbert's "Italian Street Song" from "Naughty Marietta;" "On the Road to Mandalay" by Speaks and Felton; Adams' "The Bells of St. Mary's"; a Russian Folk song "Dark Eyes;" "Pale in the Amber West" by Parkes and Moore; "Our Old High" arranged in 1906 by Mrs. Smith from the "Prince of Pilsen;" and "Honey Town" by Parkes.

It was through the untiring leadership of Mrs. W. G. Smith that the Boys' Glee Club was able to take part in the Annual Music Festival and to present their programs.

Musical Events

The Beardstown High School Band entered the band contest at Quincy, Illinois on March 25, 1938 and won first place. Since they won first, they were entitled to enter the State Contest at Champaign.

The following week, on April 2, the solo and ensemble contest was held in Quincy. Eugene Brasell gave a bass horn solo and won first place. A flute duet, played by Dorothy Hubbell and Barbara Hansmeyer, accompanied by Mary Knippenberg, also won first. Jim Davis, Frank Wichser, Esther Volkmar and Esther Haworth played a clarinet quartet and were awarded first place. A brass sextet, composed of George Wessel, Mary Knippenberg, Donald Schnepfer, Harold Nunes, William Kaffenberger and Eugene Brasell also took first place. William Kaffenberger won second with his baritone horn solo. The cornet duet played by John Beatty and Bill Buescher and accompanied by Althea Cameron won second place. John Beatty, Bill Buescher, Donald Schnepfer and Charles Little were awarded second place for their brass quartet.

In the annual Music Festival our band in collaboration with the Virginia Band gave a fine program of music. The numbers played were "Our Director" by Bigelow, "Hall of Fame," by Olivadoti, "Grandoise" by DeLamater and "E Pluribus Unum" by Jewell. Mr. P. R. Auwarter of Virginia and Mr. E. H. Swift from Beardstown each directed two numbers.

Following the band music came the Girls Glee Clubs from Virginia, Ashland, Chandlerville and Beardstown singing together, "Lift Thine Eyes" from "Elijah" by Felix Mendelssohn, "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen" by Westendorf, and then "Sympathy" from Rudolf Friml's Firefly." The Beardstown Boys' Glee Club with the boys from Ashland, Virginia and Chandlerville sang "Pale In the Amber West" by Parks Moore, "We Sail The Ocean Blue" from Pinafore by Sullivan-Riegger, and "Give A Man A Horse He Can Ride" by Geoffrey O'Hara. The Mixed Chorus, taken from both glee clubs of the fore mentioned schools, sang, "Where Sparkling Waters Flow" by Ira B. Wilson, "Italian Street Song" from Victor Herbert's "Naughty Marietta," and "The Old Refrain" by Fritz Kreisler.

The singing was under the joint direction of Mrs. Hildreth Edwards, Mrs. W. G. Smith, Miss Esther Hammond, Miss Anna Mae Campbell.

The local tryouts for the District Music contest were held in the High School auditorium on the evening of March 8, 1938. The judge was Miss Frances Chatburn, Supervisor of Music, Springfield High school. Two lyric sopranos were entered—Dorothy Krohe, who sang "Villanelle" by Eva Dell Acqua and "The Lord's Prayer" by Albert Hay Malotte, and Doris McAllister, who sang "A Song of May" by George Roberts and "Kashmiri Song" by Amy Woodforde-Finden. Dorothy Krohe placing first went on to the District contest. George Wessel sang "The Trumpeter" by Barrow and "Rolling Down to Rio" by German. Mary Janice Thomas, contralto, sang "He was Despised" by Handel and "There Little Girl Don't Cry" by Schneck. Smith Von Fossen, bass, sang "Bells of The Sea" by Sohman and "Old Man River" by Jerome Kern. Aurelia Schaefer, Mezzo soprano, sang "Down in the Forest" by Ronald and "Bird Songs at Eventide" by Coates. Maxine Piehler played "Marche Hongroise" by Henri Kowalski. The winners in voice entered the District contest at Pittsfield on April 9.

The Contest Chorus entered the contest at Springfield on April 20. They sang "On the Steppe" by Alexander Gretchanioff, arranged by G. Waring Stebbins and "The Wraggle Taggle Gypsies O.," from English Folk songs.

Bass: Eugene Brasel. Oboe: Dick McCollough. Baritone: William Kaffenberger. French Horns: Royal Brasel, Donald Schnepfer. Trombone: Harold Nunes. Cornets: John Beatty, Bill Buescher, Mary Knippenberg, George Wessel. Tympani: Althea Cameron.

The Symphonic Ensemble is a new organization in Beardstown High. It has replaced the orchestra, which was an institution of long standing in Beardstown. The ensemble is made up of all first chair players in the band, and has twenty one members in all. It is directed by Mr. Swift, the bandmaster. Under his competent leadership, this organization has flourished, and is now highly regarded.

The weekly practice of the ensemble was held out of school time.

The ensemble has played at all of the band concerts this past winter. It has furnished music for all of the high school plays. In addition music was provided by it for Senior Class Day, for Baccalaureate, and for Commencement.

Band

This year's band is carrying on the tradition that in Beardstown there is always a top-notch high school band. We point with pride to the fine things which the members of the band have accomplished and the progress which they have made with the aid of Mr. Swift, their director. They aroused the enthusiasm of the student body at pep meetings. They also played at all the home football and basketball games, and later at the Regional Tournament.

This past year, the band gave three concerts. The first was held on November 16, in the high school auditorium, and was greeted by an enthusiastic audience. The second was a Christmas concert held December 22. The auditorium was bedecked with blue and silver Christmas decorations. The last concert in the series took place on February 9.

Eight members of our band took part in the annual Carthage College Band Festival at Carthage, Illinois, on February 19, 1938. They were: Jim Davis, Frank Wichser, Dorothy Day, Mary Knippenberg, Esther Haworth, Don Schnepfer, Eugene Brasel, Dorothy Hubbell and Mr. Swift.

The P.-T. A. was entertained from time to time by special numbers from the band.

Last year, the band won first place at the State contest at Champaign. This was the second consecutive year that our band has held this position of honor.

On March 24, 1938, Beardstown High was host to the annual County Music Festival. Our band and the Virginia band played several numbers together under the direction of Mr. Swift, the local director, and Mr. Auwarter of Virginia.

The band entered the District Band contest held on March 25, 1938 at Quincy Illinois. In this contest they won first place. On April 2, there was a solo and ensemble contest in connection with the band contest. Several members of the band competed in this. We had entered a brass sextet consisting of George Wessel, Mary Knippenberg, Donald Schnepfer, Harold Nunes, William Kaffenberger and Eugene Brasel. There was also a brass quartet made up of John Beatty, Bill Buescher, Donald Schnepfer and Charles Little. The clarinet quartet contained the following musicians: Jim Davis, Frank Wichser, Esther Haworth, and Esther Volkmar. John Beatty, Bill Buescher and Althea Cameron made up the Cornet Trio. The members of the Miscellaneous Trio were Dorothy Hubbell, Barbara Hansmeyer and Mary Knippenberg. The soloists in this contest were Eugene Brasel and Charles Little, bass; William Kaffenberger, baritone; Dorothy Day, alto clarinet, and Robert Henderson, snare drum, and as the student director.

Credit for our band is largely due to the excellent leadership and direction of Mr. Swift. His knowledge of music and of bands has shaped the band into the fine musical unit it is today. Because he has built something for which we are all justly proud, we wish to both thank and congratulate Mr. Swift on his success as bandmaster here in Beardstown.

Future Farmers of America

The emblem of the Future Farmers of America is made up of four symbols—the owl, the plow, the rising sun and a cross section of an ear of corn—surmounted by the American Eagle. The owl is symbolic of wisdom and knowledge; the plow is the symbol of labor and tillage of the soil; the rising sun is emblematic of progress and the new day that will dawn when all farmers are the product of vocational agricultural schools, and have learned to co-operate; the cross section of an ear of corn is indicative of the national scope of the organization, as is also the American eagle.

The Future Farmer Creed

I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words, but of deeds — achievements won by the present and past generations of farmers; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come up to us from the struggles of former years.

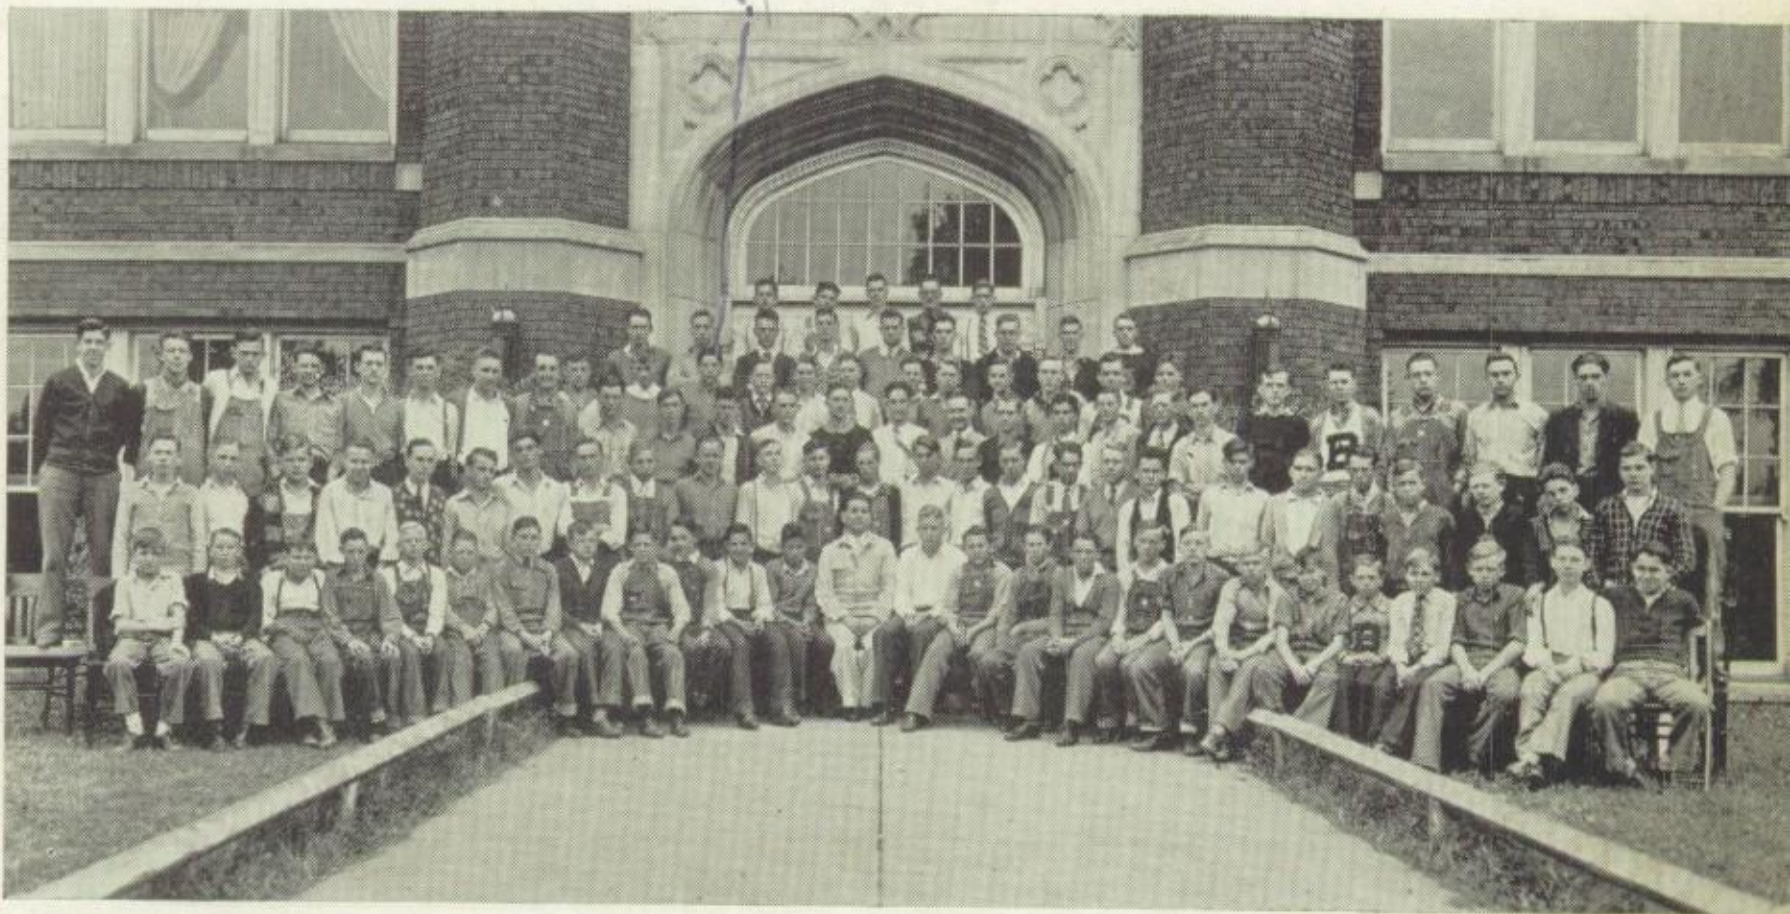

I believe that to live and work on a good farm is pleasant as well as challenging; for I know the joys and discomforts of farm life and hold an inborn fondness for those associations which, even in hours of discouragement, I can not deny.

I believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and think clearly, with such knowledge and skill as I can secure, and in the ability of organized farmers to serve our own and the public interest in marketing the product of our toil. I believe we can safeguard those rights against practices and policies that are unfair.

I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining; in the life abundant and enough honest wealth to help make it so—for others as well as myself; in less need for charity and more of it when needed; in being happy myself and playing square with those whose happiness depends upon me.

I believe that rural America can and will hold true to the best traditions in our national life and that I can exert an influence in my home and community which will stand solid for my part in that inspiring task.

Agriculture Play

The Ag Club gave as its annual play, "New Fires," by Charles Quinley Burdette.

Stephen Santry, (Carl Dunn) an author has brought his family to a farm in the Missouri Ozarks which was left him by his uncle. The family is horrified at the idea of living on a farm and doing all of their own work, but Stephen remains obstinate. To get away, Olive, the eldest daughter (Doris McAllister) feigns illness. When Lynn Gray, (Eldred Beemer) the young country doctor is called in, he discovers the sham, but announces that Olive has a heart ailment which can be cured only by healthful living and change of mental attitude. She rebels at this and threatens to hitch hike back to Chicago. However her plans are interrupted when Mary Marshall (Carolyn Kuhlmann) a neighbor girl, breaks out with scarlet fever while playing with Phyllis (Virginia Nagel) and Billy (Eugene Schaeffer) the two younger children. The whole family is quarantined for a month. They are forced to not only amuse themselves, but also to attend to their own wants since the two servants, Lucinda (Velma Vathauer) and Suzanne (Claranne VonFossen) were not in the house at the time of the quarantine. During his many calls on the nvalid, Dr. Gray becomes thoroughly acquainted with the entire family, and especially so with Olive who vehemently denies any interest in the young doctor; nevertheless, he has been instrumental in changing her views on life.

Dick (Dick Murray) the eldest son, and his young wife Eve (Betty Daily) have been studying fruit and poultry raising during the quarantine. Both of them are delighted with the possibilities of this business, Eve especially so since this new interest promises to save Dick from worthlessness.

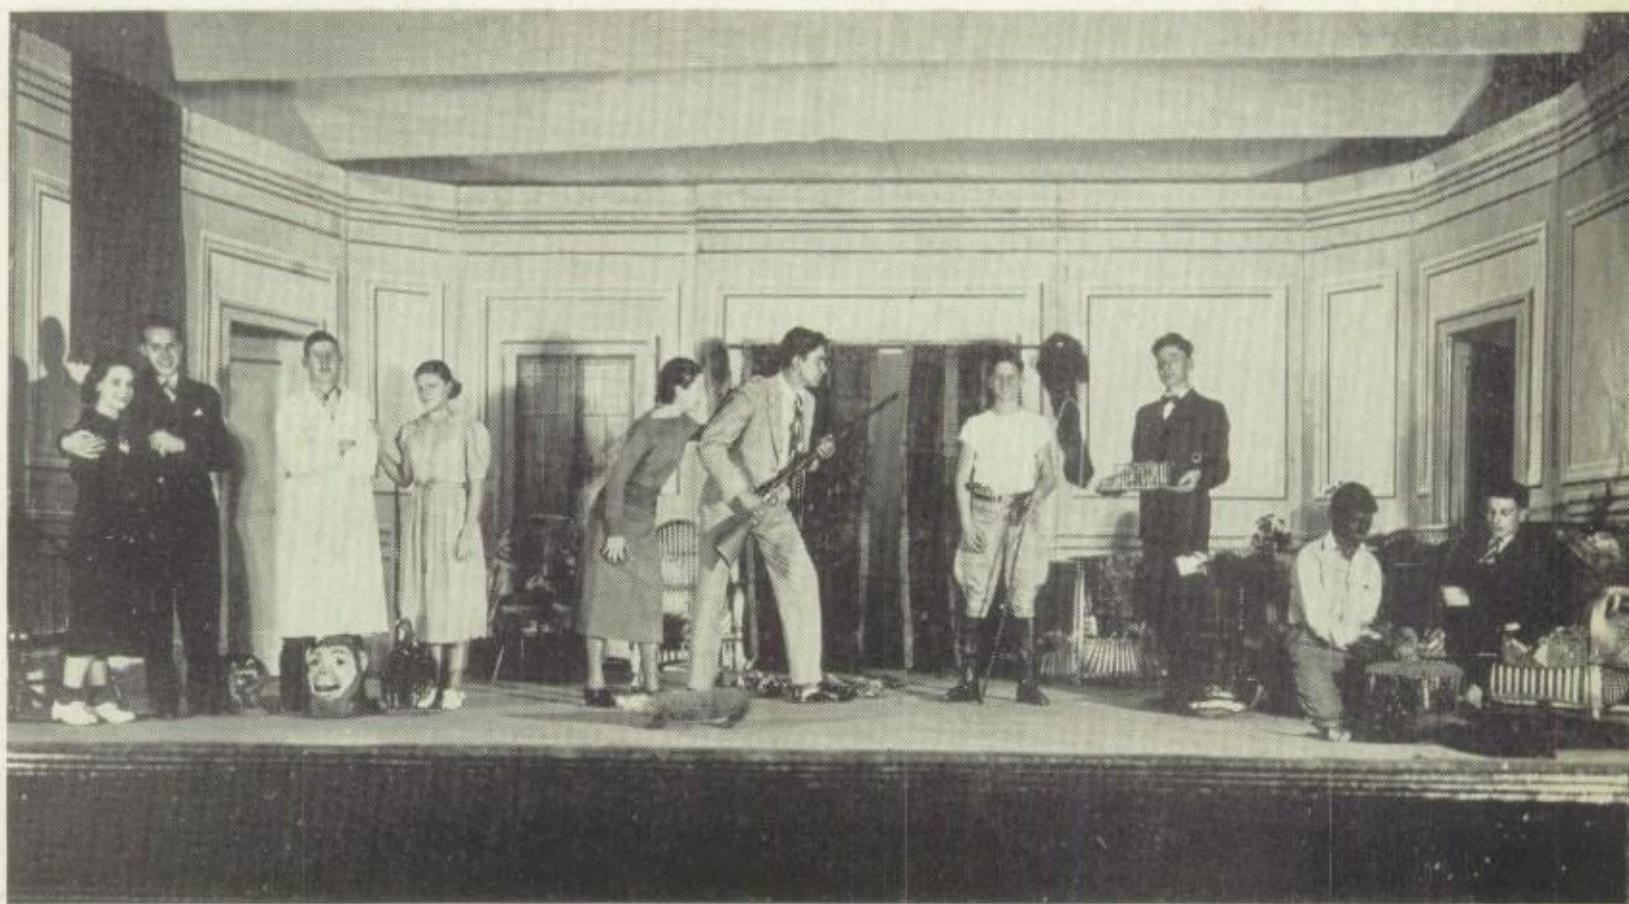

Olive's true feelings about Dr. Gray are revealed when Sid Sperry (George Schaeffer) the farm hand, brings news that the doctor's car has plunged off the end of a bridge near the Santry farm. He has been badly hurt.

In the end, Dr. Gray and Olive unite forces. Dick and Eve have the farm, provided they make a go of it. Stephen, happy that his family has reverted to the simple life, returns to Chicago with Anne, his wife, (Kathryn Kuhlmann), Billy and Phyllis.

The rest of the cast included Phyllis Krohe as Angie Sperry, Doris Walker as Mrs. Marshall and Francis Kirska as Jerry Sperry.

The play was capably directed by Miss Maltas and was enthusiastically received by a large audience.

Senior Class Play

This year the Seniors gave "Gunshy" by Homer Little and Myla Jo Closser.

The play was a satire on the father who insists that his son be a "chip off the old block." Peter Drake (Homer Welch) a retired explorer and big-game hunter, lives in Jungleria, his country estate in Connecticut. He and his wife, Zoe (Geraldine Moore) who has accompanied him on all his expeditions delight in telling tall stories of their highly exciting adventures in the wilds of Africa.

Their only son, Junior (James Doyle) is extremely bored by the tales of his parent's exploits. His only interest is photography, and his chief ambition is to explore the world of minute beauty with the camera. His parents are disgusted and disappointed with their son.

A circus comes to town and a lion, Hero, escapes. Bonaparte (Clarence Reither) the lion tamer, bursts in on the quiet evening circle of the Drakes. At the startling bit of news, the old hunting instinct leaps to the fore in Peter, who proceeds to organize his guests—a la African days—for the capture. There is Hiram Hall (Robert Stanley) young popular successor to Peter's mantle with his black boy, Birbal (Donald Kirby), Babs Walker (Mary Clarice Minks) a female athlete enamored of Junior, but thoroughly disliked by him, Lenny O'Neill (Frank Wichser) a somewhat caddish youth suing for Babs, and Fergus (Lee Turley), now chauffeur, but tried emergency man of the hunting days.

Junior rebels and flatly refuses to accompany his parents in the hunt. But Fate desires that Junior is to prove himself the hero of the situation, and in the following manner: While the others are scrambling around the country hunting the lion, Hero goes calling at Jungleria. He surprises Junior, who has been entertaining Anne, a neighbor girl, (Lois Treadway). Both are panic stricken, but Anne's derisive taunts arouse in Junior the necessity to regain her admiration. This overcame his fear and he dashes after the lion. He effects a capture and exposes to ridicule the poses of the big game hunters. In the end Junior and Anne are re-united.

The success of this comedy with its thrills and chills was largely due to the skillful direction of Miss Brock.

Junior Class Play

The stage setting for last year's Junior play, "Out Of The Fog," was a grocery store.

For years Sophie Duncan (Dorothy Hubbell) had dominated and brow-beaten her husband, her daughter Gladys, (Doris McAllister) and her foster sister Annabel Parker (Dorothy Day). She is devoted, however, to her younger daughter Marcia (Mary Clarice Minks) a child of ten, who has inherited all of her mother's mean grasping traits and added a few of her own. Gladys, seventeen, is in love with Paul Nichols (Eldred Beemer) whose father Bert Nichols (Jack Foster) runs the town's newspaper, but Sophie doesn't approve of him and forbids him to come on the premises. Henry Duncan (John O'Neal) is interested in an aviation invention. He had the misfortune to lose all his money on an experiment immediately after marrying Sophie and she has held it over his head ever since. Annabel has faithfully served Grandma Merideth for years, but when Sophie and her family come to stay, she is compelled by Sophie to peddle cosmetics and to pay board. In a desperate search for romance and beauty, Annabel answers a newspaper advertisement for a correspondence husband. Roger Payson (Homer Welch) is the modern "Blue-beard" who traffics in gullible females likely to bring him money. In the hope of Annabel inheriting something from old Mrs. Meredith, Mr. Payson encourages her affection. When Grandma does die and Lawler Crason (Jack Hagerty) reads the will it discloses that the bulk of the money goes to Annabel, and one dollar to the hard-hearted Sophie! In a rage the latter tries to prove Annabel mentally unstable when she hears of the correspondence husband, especially as Mr. Payson has involved himself in a scandal at the time the will is read. Bert Nichols saves the day, however, when he produces a damaging letter, written by the malevolent Marcia, which Sophie cannot afford to have printed. After this storm has blown over, Annabel finds her romance when Bert, freed from debt by Grandma's will, declares his affection for her and she in turn realizes that it was Bert she had pictured in her correspondence hero. With Sophie's spell forever broken, Gladys renews her friendship with Paul and Henry is able to once more work on his beloved inventions. The cast is completed by Jane Chambers as Minnie, the worried wife of Bill Murray; Dorothy Daugherty as plain spoken gossipy postmistress, and Harold Fast a clerk in the Duncan's store. This play was exceptionally good and was capably directed by Miss Brodman.

Junior-Senior Prom

"Ja, Ja," it was a great success, the Dutch Prom, given by the class of '38 last year! But instead of the clumping dance of the wooden shoes, the rustle and swish of silken skirts was heard. The windmills were there, the tulips were there, and even the figures of Dutch children were seen playing around amid the flowers. The only thing lacking was the pompous Dutch burgomaster with the jolly wife. Indeed, it was a veritable fairyland—a bit of old Holland transported to our gym. It seems as though Aladdin and his magic lamp had been borrowed for the evening by the juniors to transform that which had been commonplace and unexciting into a beautiful Dutch landscape. Upon entering the gym, one almost expected to see Hans Brinker emerge from the huge windmill at the far end of the gym. This windmill was shining white with giant blue vanes and a quaint thatched roof. It was surrounded by a colorful garden of tulips in full bloom. Could these bright flowers have been carefully tended by some patient Dutch vrouw? It seemed so, but no, they had been placed there by the ingenious Juniors.

Large bushes of snowy spyria were placed at intervals around the gym. What a lovely background they made for the bright colored dresses of the girls dancing by! A white picket fence in the back of the bushes made the scene seem so real one could almost feel the cool, refreshing breeze from the Zuider-Zee. Soft light was furnished by lights with tulip shades placed at intervals along the sides of the gym. Blue and white streamers overhead transformed the ceiling into a beautiful canopy. Directly opposite the windmill was a typical Dutch window with a blue window box full of lovely tulips.

The table was loaded with goodies which could have been prepared only by some good Dutch vrouw in her own spotless kitchen, perhaps in Rotterdam or the Hague. The tables were in the shape of two windmill vanes. They were covered by table cloths with gay tulip borders, and each guest had a matching napkin. Pots of tulips were used to further decorate the tables and give them a festive air. Legions of Dutch boys and girls, serving as place cards, directed each guest to his respective place. On the menu appeared such tasty and intriguing Dutch dishes as Vrouw's Delight, Klompen, Leyden Special, Dutch Apple Pie with Cheese and Polders.

When all the food had been consumed by these hearty Dutchmen, Burgomaster (Harold Fast) Schimmelpennick, Manager of the Windmills, introduced Juforouw (Dorothy Daugherty) Van Gleek who welcomed all the guests to Holland. The response to this hospital welcome. Mynheer (Clarence Anderson) Ikatterboot thanked the worthy Dutch and assured them of the success of their banquet. This was followed by brief talks from Attorney R. L. Northcutt, President of the Board of Education; W. L. Gard, Superintendent of Schools, and P. W. McAllister, Principal of the High School.

Then came the Dutchman's Stomp executed by Hans (George Wessel) Von Holp and Katrinka (Mary Clarice Minks) Poot in the style of the lowlands. After this stimulating bit of entertainment came a Dutch melody sung by Juforouw (Dorothy Daugherty) Van Gleek. More melody followed as Hans Brinker and his Brinker Boys sang "A Volley From Volendam." Homer Welch appeared as Hans Brinker and Bill Murray, George Schaeffer, Jack Foster, and Charles Perkins were the Brinker Boys. Grietje (Doris McAllister) Korbes and Hilda (Pauline McGovern) Mon Speyk brought the program to a close by singing "Tulip Tunes."

Dancing followed the program. Music was furnished by Red Green and his orchestra.

We the class of 1938, are justly proud of our first prom and we wish to thank Miss Cross and Miss Greve who are mainly responsible for its success.

Social Committee

Bob Phelps, Harriett Bell, Jerry Mahnken, Clarice Landreth, George Wessel, Miss Noble, Pat Cowen, Mary C. Minks, Jayne Craven.

The Social Committee is a well established organization in Beardstown High. It plans and gives the school parties. That the committee is a success can well be proven by the spirit of fun and comradeship which pervades all of the school dances.

This year four dances were given. The first was the annual get-acquainted dance to which the Freshies were required to wear green. They were cordially greeted by the upperclassmen, and made to feel right at home in high school.

The next party was a Thanksgiving dance. The gym was decorated in the spirit of the season. By this time the Freshmen felt as much a part of the fun as did the most dignified Senior.

To celebrate St. Valentine's Day, another party was given. A large crowd of students helped to make this dance a success.

The last dance of the season given by the Social Committee was an April Fool's Day party. Because of the date, this was an unusually gay affair. Of course all the practical jokers were there.

The Social Committee is made up of a boy and girl elected from each class. The Seniors elected Mary Clarice Minks, and George Wessel, the Juniors, Pat Cowen and Jayne Craven. The Sophomore representatives were Jerry Mahnken and Clarice Landreth, however the latter moved away, and Christine Kuhlman filled her place. The Freshmen on the committee were Harriet Bell and Bob Phelps. Miss Noble is the faculty advisor and her leadership and cooperation go a long way toward making this organization as successful as it is.

The aim of the committee is to provide good entertainment for the high school students. The money taken in at the parties goes to defray expenses.

G. A. A. Calendar

Top row: Irma Kays, Helen Dorwart, Jeanette Burke, Norma Castor, Erna DeSollar, Kathryn Thurman, Lillian Ewing, Pauline Engle, Allene Rodgers. Second row: Helen Gardner, Louise Woods, Freda Daniels, Betty Philippi, Dorothy Avery, Marjorie Jamison, Shirley Edwards, Barbara Hansmeyer, Ruth Dann, Ruth Brown, Melba Ivemeyer, Eleanor Siekman, Doris Cox. Third row: Virginia Nagel, Hildred Walker, Betty J. Cox, Ruth A. Walters, Mary Aten, Doris France, Marjorie Kays, Doris Walker, Mildred Rohn, Phyllis Krohe, June Waters, Margaret Ellen Haworth, Jayne Craven. Fourth row: Freida Yoakum, Mardell Hauter, Mary Penwar:den, Clella R. Burnett, Dorothy Fast, Marjorie Bolton, Helen Ford, Betty Phelps, Dorothy Lynn, Dorothy Koppelman, Edna Rodgers, Maxine Cooper, Nalda Nunes. Fifth row: Clarice Collins, Ruth Avery, Lillian Jump, Betty Coil, Mona L. Dawson, Mary C. Minks, Anna Langdon, Rozella Crafton, Norma J. Painter, Lois Bergmann, Eileen Haxton.

September—The first meeting of the G. A. A. was held in the form of a treasure hunt. Four teams looked for clues. A week later a hike and wiener roast was held.

October—On the ninth, the Chandlerville G. A. A. invited eight of our members to a Play Day. On the following Saturday the G. A. A.'s made a trip to the Springfield Y. W. C. A. for a swim. During October the volley ball team practiced after school. Frequent long hikes were taken. A Hallowe'en Party was enjoyed.

November—Volley ball practice was continued. The girls held a pastry sale to raise funds for archery set.

December—A chili supper was held at the school.

January—The G. A. A. concentrated on basketball with a vengeance. The girls who had earned awards received them. The Freshman girls who had earned 100 points were initiated into the organization. A pot luck supper followed.

March—The most important event of this month was the telegraphic basket shooting tournament held on March 14, in which our G. A. R. competed against G. A. A.'s all over the state.

April and May—The election of next year's officers took place in April. The fudge and popcorn party was well attended. The Spring Play Day was held. The grand climax to a year of fun came in May with the Mother and Daughter Banquet.

We are thankful for the competent leadership and helpful companionship of Miss Noble, our faculty adviser, without whose aid we could not function.

G. A. A. officers for 1937-1938 were: President, Allene Rodgers; Vice President, Dorothy Avery; Secretary, Pauline Engle; Treasurer, Mary Clarice Minks; Sports Chairman, Betty Philippi; Publicity Chairman, Virginia Nagel.

Science Club

The Science Club was founded to promote a live interest in scientific invention and discovery among high school students and to relate such invention and discovery to the factors of everyday life. Its purpose is to make possible further exploration and experimentation for the student in the field of science. The club has striven to bring its members into closer contact with the scientific world. The officers of the club are: President, Frank Wichser; Vice President, George Wessel; Secretary-Treasurer, Doris McAllister; Adviser, Mr. McCullough.

All high school students who have had at least one year of science are eligible to be members of the club. Those who meet the requirements and are ready to participate in the activities of the club are welcome to join.

Every month the members of the science club hold their meetings. Various activities are held at each meeting, and these are suggested, planned and presented by the students. This year a number of interesting and instructive discussions and demonstrations were given. Among these were Energy, Measurement of Heat, Chemistry of Common Things, Facts about the Planets and Stars, Ultra Violet Light and the Operation and Uses of the Photoelectric cell.

Homer Welch presented an interesting demonstration of the new ultra violet lamp purchased this year. In a dark room the invisible ultra violet rays were used to make invisible freckles visible, to read otherwise invisible writing, to change the color of dyes, to distinguish mineral from vegetable oils, to make minerals luminous, and to produce other strange effects.

The new photoelectric cell, also purchased this year, was demonstrated by Eugene Brasel. An apparatus for the demonstration of the photoelectric cell was constructed by the members of the club. In this exhibition light was allowed to fall upon the shielded electric eye of the apparatus and in so doing, caused a motor to run, a bell to ring and a light to be lighted.

On April 19, 20, and 21 of this year the Science Club enjoyed an interesting three day educational trip to Chicago. Among the places of scientific interest which were visited were the Joliet steel mills, Brookfield Zoo, N. B. C. studios, Merchandise Mart, Hull House, Museum of Science and Industry, Fields Museum, Shedd Aquarium, Alder Planetarium, Chicago Tribune, Art Institute, Diesel School and the Chicago Airport.

Thanks must be given on behalf of the Science Club to Mr. McCullough for his capable work in aiding the members of the club. In his capacity as sponsor of the club, he has faithfully performed the duties which fell to him.

Entertainment

The assembly programs come all too seldom, or so think the B. H. S. students, for there is nothing quite so amusing.

Of course Pep Assemblies were held before the big games. Excitement ran high, and loyalty to the school and team mounted to a high pitch. The band played, the students cheered, and the team vowed to do or die for Beardstown.

Two programs of special numbers by the students were given in the course of the year. English speech class gave a play. "The Lie That Jack Built," with Esther Haworth, Harold Fast, Jack Foster, and Dorothy Hubbell appearing in the cast. The contest play, "Cabbages" was also given. Major Bowes, portrayed by our own James Doyle, presented his talented amateurs in an amusing and highly entertaining program. Donald Summey, Mary Clarice Minks and Gertrude Keiper each presented their contest readings in a special assembly.

The Reverend Mr. Beddoes of the Congregational church spoke at the Thanksgiving proram. Mr. Musselman gave his annual talk to the students on March 11.

Before each of its concerts the Band played for special assembly. These were among the most popular of the student assemblies.

The Freshmen gave their assembly on April 1. Talent was selected for the program from the members of the class. It consisted of dance numbers given by Evelyn Boice and Helen Brady, accompanied by Harriet Bell and by Margaret Harn. Margaret Haworth and Ruth Lasse each played a piano solo. Donna Reichert sang, Dale Hager played a guitar solo, and Steve Treadway gave a reading. The cast of the play, "Elizabeth's Idiot" was made up of Betty Phelps, Erna DeSollar, Suzanne Turnbull, and Robert Huss. The Freshies proved themselves to be very ingenious entertainers.

The Sophomore's entertained the students on May 6. Their play, "The Grass Is Always Green" had as its cast Smith VonFossen, Doris Walker, Carl Walski, Walter Shepherd, Irene Taylor, Nancy Hanks and Eugene Schaeffer. After the play, Mona Lee Dawson entertained with a tap dance, Melba Ivemeyer played the piano, Smith VonFossen sang, and Jeanette Sudbrink gave a reading.

The Junior assembly was held on April 27. A swing orchestra composed of Milton LaMasters, Bert Phelps, Stanley Cox and Bill Hansmeyer played "Basin Street Blues," and "On the Sentimental Side." Bill Hansmeyer whistled "Everything You Said Came True." A trio, namely Aurelia Schaefer, Mary Janice Thomas and Dorothy Krohe sang "Ti-Pi-Tin" and "Heigho-ho." John Rohn and Maxine Cooper sang a hill-billy number. A reading was given by Virginia Nagel, a dance by Jayne Craven and Betty Doran, and saxophone and accordian solos by Milton LaMasters and Bertram Phelps. Jean Foster acted as mistress of ceremonies.

The faculty advisors of the various class programs were: Miss Swordes, Freshman; Mr. Weyland, Sophomore, and Miss Dawson, Junior.

Literary

The Literary Contests, which are held annually, began in Beardstown this year with the local tryouts for plays. These tryouts were held on January 27th and 28th in the High school auditorium before an audience of townspeople. There were five plays contesting, namely: "Benedick and Beatrice" cut from Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing." The cast of this play was Eldred Beemer, Dorothy Davis, Geraldine Moore, Lois Treadway, John O'Neal, Jack Foster, Harold Fast, prologue by John Musgrove, songs by George Wessel and Smith VonFossen. "The Skinflint," which won first place in the contest, had as its cast Velma Vattbauer, Jean Todd, Frank Wichser, Lee Turley, Jane Chambers, and Dorothy Mae Gorden. "The Inn of Return" which won third place, was acted out by Homer Welch, James Doyle, Robert Stanley, Dorothy Day, Dorothy Daugherty, Clarence Reither, Harold Fast and Eugene Brasel. The cast of "The Powers That Be" consisted of Donald Summey, Donald Kirby, Dorothy Hubbell, Marie Maher, Mary Clarice Minks, Lois Treadway, with Leo Fitzpatrick giving the prologue. Those appearing in "Everybody's Doing It" were Dorothy Day, Helen Ford, Allene Rodgers, Esther Haworth, Mae Kaneer, Dorothy Davis, and Dorothy Daugherty. The all star cast picked from these plays was Lee Turley, Velma Vattbauer and Dorothy Mae Gorden.

The sub-district contest was held at Winchester on March 23. The play entered by Beardstown was "Cabbages." The cast of this play consisted of Velma Vattbauer, Lee Turley, Homer Welch, Lois Treadway, Robert Stanley, Dorothy Hubbell and Margart Smashey.

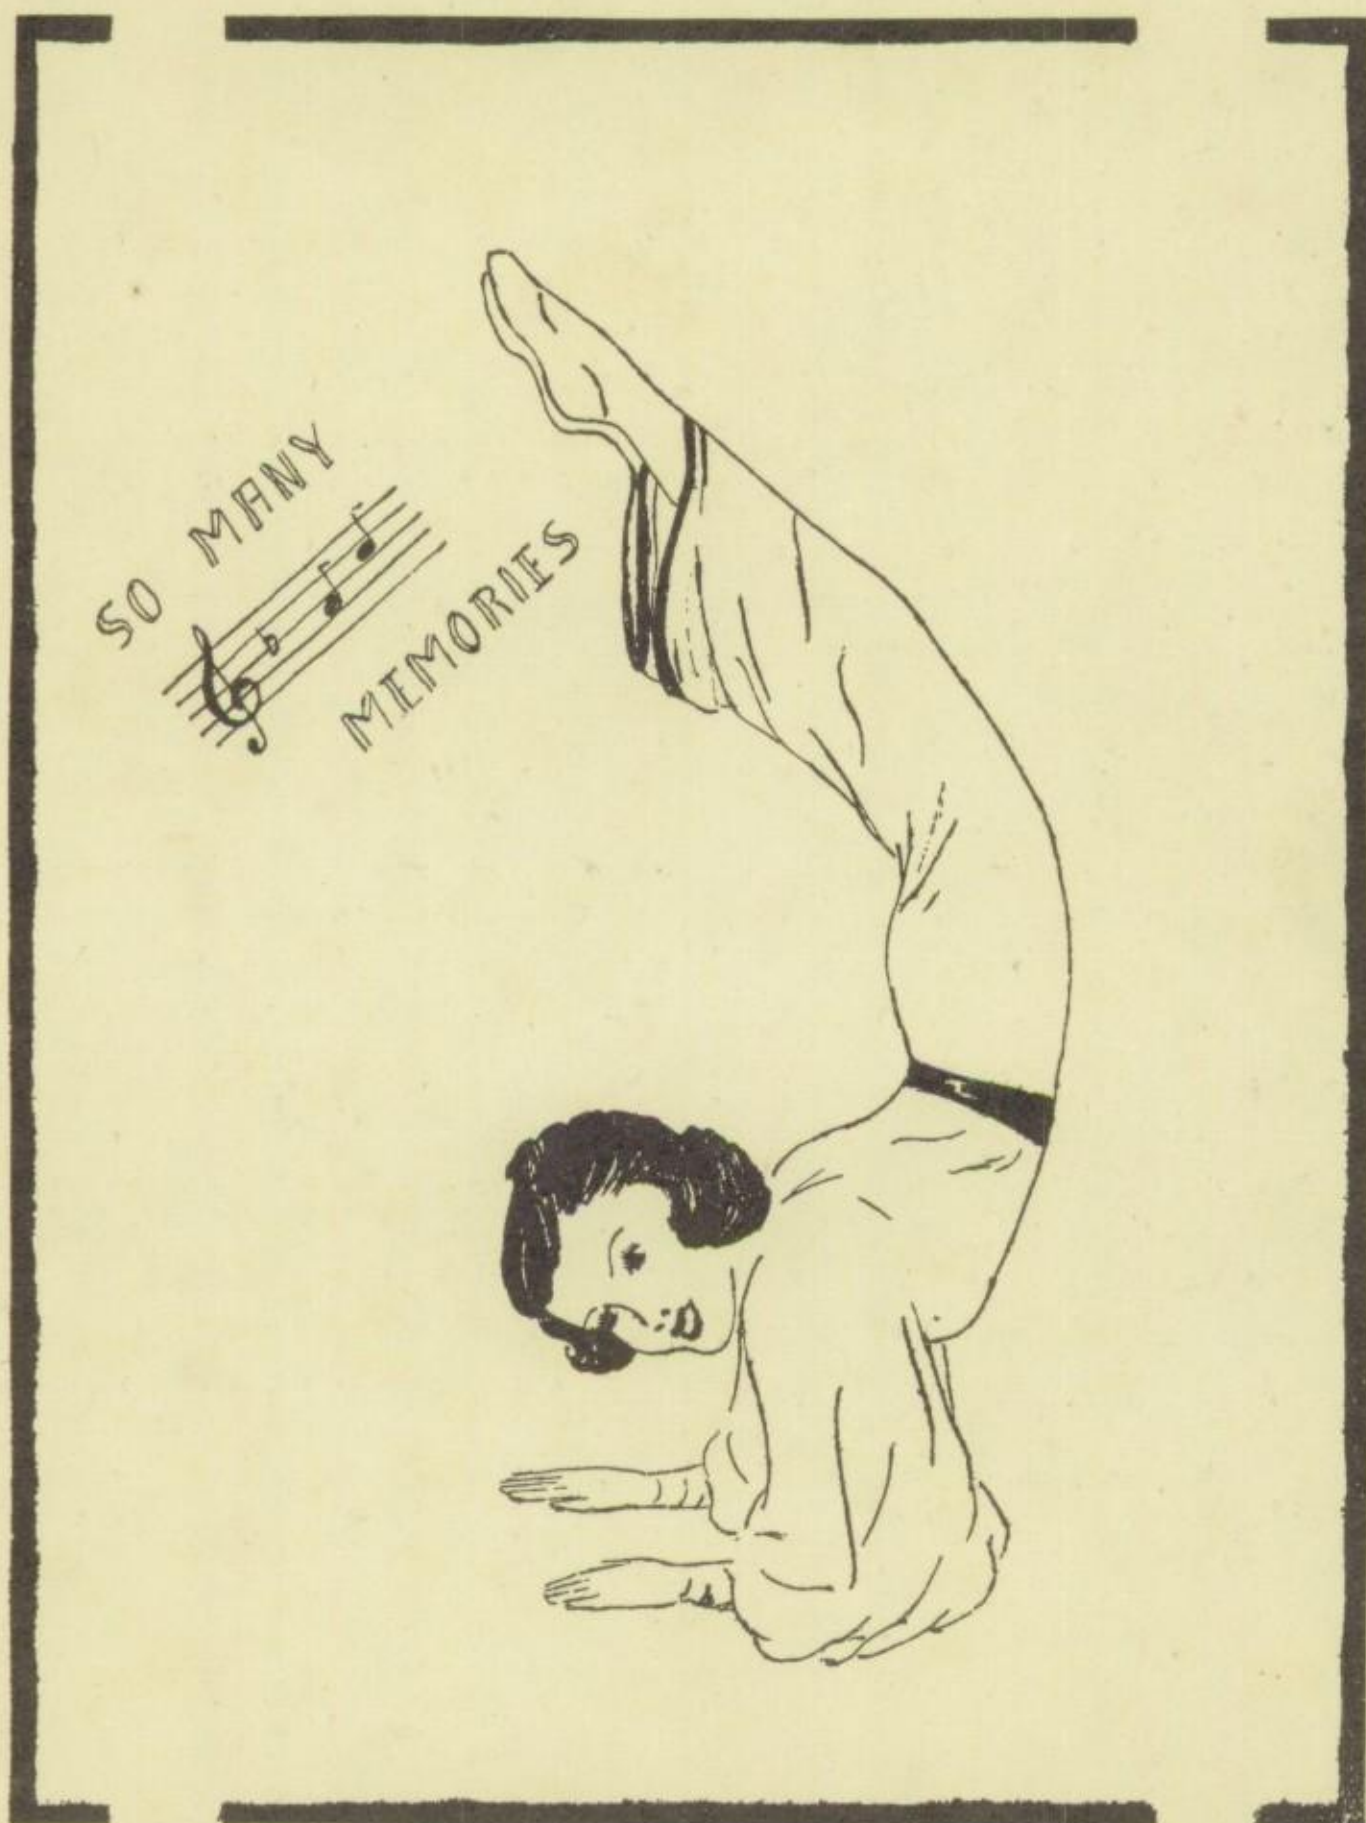

The local tryouts for the sub-district speech contest were held in the High School auditorium on March 8, 1938. Those who competed were Eugene Brasel and Donald Summey giving oratorical readings, Jeanette Sudbrink and Margaret Smashey giving verse readings, Gertrude Keiper gave a dramatic reading and the humorous readings were given by Marie Maher, Mary Clarice Minks and Geraldine Moore. The judge was Mrs. Marian Schaeffer of MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Illinois.

On March 26 the sub-district speech contest was held at Winchester. Those entering from Beardstown were Donald Summey, Jeanette Sudbrink, Gertrude Keiper, and Mary Clarice Minks. Jeanette Sudbrink and Donald Summey each won second place in class A schools, which gave them right to attend the district at Jacksonville, April 9, 1938, where Jeanette Sudbrink placed second in class A, and third in the event. She entered the state contest.

Geraldine Moore spoke in the County Contest at Beardstown on April 29, 1938.

Special mention should be made here of the fine work done by Miss Brock in preparing for these events. She worked diligently and patiently to make them a success.

Football

In the early stages of September, a band of very courageous, fighting men reported for the first football practice. Coach McQueen lost many valuable men by graduation but had four men remaining from the first team: Hagerty, Murray, Jones and Long. He also had many valuable lettermen from his first squad. These men, along with an enthusiastic group of underclassmen, intended to carry on for Beardstown High in the football wars.

With an able mentor, the team began to take shape. The first team that opposed Beardstown was White Hall. White Hall came to town to fight hard for a victory. But they soon had the wind taken out of their sails by a stinging defeat. A 32-0 victory for Beardstown.

The following week the team traveled to Jacksonville for their second game. It was a miserable day, and it rained throughout the game. Perhaps a little over-confidence turned the trick, for it was our first defeat and a victory for Jacksonville, 13-7. They took possession of the striped jug.

Then on October 1, Bushnell came to the "Tigers'" lair for the third game. The sting of the Jacksonville game was still in the mind of all the players, and they really went out and played football. It was a victory for the Tigers, this time 27-0.

Now, the next week, October 8, the "Tigers" were expecting the toughest game on their schedule. Macomb was the opponent. Beardstown was scored upon for the first three minutes of play. This could not keep the "Tigers" down. From that time on it was completely the "Tigers" game. They pushed Macomb from one end of the field to the other, but the best they could do was to come home with a 7-7 tie.

On October 15, Beardstown went away from home to meet an old rival, Virginia. Coach McQueen used all of his men in this game. They (Virginia) were rather small, but were very stubborn; nevertheless it was another victory for B. H. S., 20-0.

On October 16, Beardstown met a new team. Clinton furnished the opposition but could not hold the "Tigers." This victory was very pleasing. Jones, Beardstown backfield ace, really showed Clinton how to run in the open field. This victory, 32-14.

The next game, October 29 was against Havana at Havana. It was cold and was really football weather. B. H. S. came out on top again by the score of 34-0.

The Tigers' last home game was against another new opponent for the "Tigers." The opponent was Lanphier High school of Springfield. The "Tigers" romped, roared and clawed the Lanphier Lions to the score of 32-6. On departure of this year's Seniors, it was really a good parting.

Our "Tigers" last game of the '37 season was against Fietshans High school, also of Springfield. This was on November 11, Armistice Day. But to the "Tigers" it seemed as though the war just started. Fietshans walked off the field with a 20-0 victory.

Trophies

For many years Beardstown High School has rated very high in athletic games. There are mementoes in our trophy case representing every sport in the athletic curriculum.

The following write-up names the boys playing on the teams that won the various trophies, and tells where and when each meet was held.

Basketball---1937-38

The call for basketeers was put forth by Coach Clyde McQueen soon after the football season was closed. It was answered by over a hundred, eager, boys who wanted to carry the colors of B. H. S. into the basketball wars. After about the first three or four nights the squad was cut down to about thirty boys. As in all the sports at B. H. S., a captain was chosen. Bill Murray served that position.

Now things really began to take shape. Coach McQueen didn't have much time to make up a team that would be ready for its first game, less than two weeks away from the first call for practice. But everyone was eager to get in good shape and things formed very fast.

Our first game was with Mt. Sterling on November 31. It was a rough and tumble game but "The Tigers" showed some good basketball and won by a 28-12 margin.

On the following Friday the Tigers made a trip to the den of the "Pekin Chinks." The game was fast and furious and with one Pekin player making 19 points the home towners went down to their first defeat by the score of 25 to 18.

Then on the next night, Saturday, December 4, the team went to Bath and piled up the biggest score of the year—53-32.

On Tuesday, December 7, we played Chandlerville and ran right past the "Rockets"—40-25.

Next came the game the Tigers had been waiting for. Taylorville moved into town very elated expecting to take away a victory but left very downcast after watching our boys play superb basketball. Another win 21-9.

Our next game was with Lanphier of Springfield. They had a good team but we won 31-15. This was our first victory in the newly formed Central Conference.

On the following Friday we traveled to Jacksonville to play the "Crimsons." We wanted to get back the "Striped Jug," which we had lost to them in football, and did just that by the score of 37-20.

After the Jacksonville game we began to train for the Pontiac tourney. It was our first invitation to the little State Tournament and every player looked forward to see the morning of December 30 roll around. On Thursday we played the giant team from Dwight and conquered them 28-23. The next night we played Athens and were eliminated by the score 26-13.

The "Tigers" next foe was a touted Pittsfield team. They played tight basketball and edged out the "Tigers" 30-27.

The next game was with I. S. D. They couldn't get through the "Tigers" zone defense and went down to defeat by the score of 38-18.

The following Saturday night the team went to Taylorville and lost a thriller in the last few seconds to Taylorville by the score of 22-21.

Our next game was with Athens, who again took our measure by the tune of 32-23.

Then on January 25, we played Feitshans High of Springfield. This was one of our best games. Both teams played slow and deliberate but the "Tigers" were the better. We won the Conference Championship by winning—17-13.

The next Friday Macomb, who hadn't won any athletic game from Beardstown in 3 years, was our next foe. It was a walk away for the locals by the score of 44-22.

The Virginia "Red Heads" were next on the list for Beardstown and were subdued by the score of 32-15.

Lewistown was ready for Beardstown but not ready enough. The boys really showed the Indians how to handle a basketball. We avenged one of last year's losses to Lewistown by winning 37-10.

The tenth of February was a very cold night on which to make a trip to Havana. But Havana warmed things up by being plenty "hot." The result was a victory for the Ducks by score of 36-28.

The very next night the "Tigers" encountered the team that had beaten Havana pretty bad, Quincy. It was a thriller with the localites winning out by 23 to 19.

Following the Quincy game a courageous band of players from Winchester came to our gym to play. This resulted in another victory for the "Tigers" 35-15.

Next we played our second game with Lewistown. And again revenge was sweet. They beat us twice last year and this game made the second time we beat them this year. Score 31-16.

On Washington's birthday we played Virginia and again beat the "Redheads" by the score of 25-15. Bill Murray received a broken nose from this game.

Following the Virginia game the team made a long trip to Farmington. They stopped in Canton, where, I hear, the beefsteak was rather tough. The "Tigers" played an excellent game and "bagged" a 41-22 game.

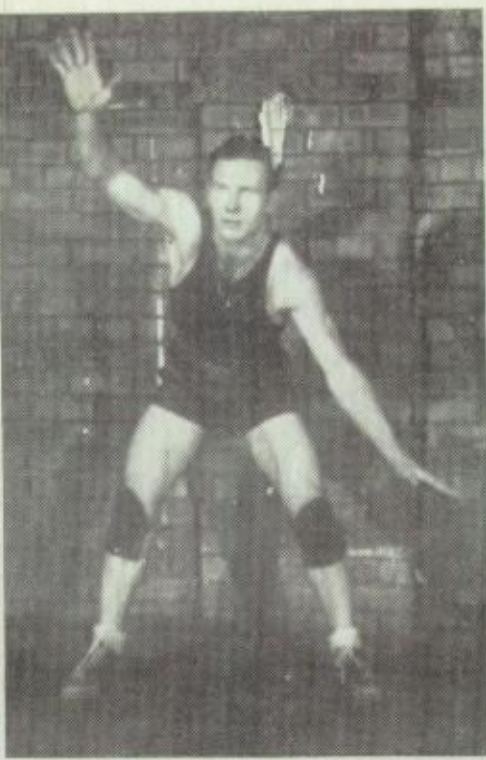

The last scheduled game of the year was with Macomb on the home court. It was one of the most exciting games ever played here, with B. H. S. winning in an overtime 21-19.

The team now was ready for the Regional Tournament, where they hoped they would play Rushville for the title. Their first opponent was Macomb Academy who were beaten 48-27. The next night they played Mt. Sterling and conquered them 38-25. The same night Vermont beat our touted rivals 35-28. Saturday night the "Tigers" played Vermont for the Championship and successfully won the tournament 39-19.

Next for the "Tigers" was the Sectional tournament at Pittsfield. The first night Beardstown won a hard game from Mendon by a score of 28-23.

But at last fate overtook the "Tigers" and they were beaten by a great Milton team who went on to win the trip to the State tournament.

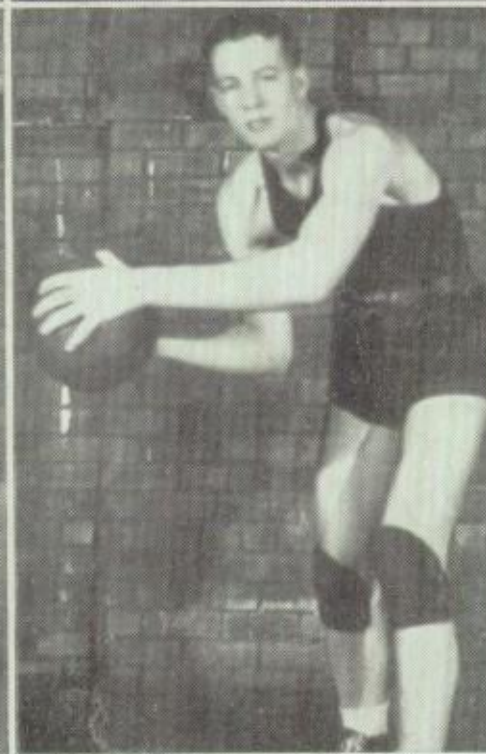

The season was over for the "Tigers" who having accomplished a very good record stored away their equipment. Long live the "Tigers."

Spring Athletic Program

The Beardstown Tigers had a very interesting track and field schedule this spring due to the fact that many important meets were held. A quadrangular meet was held here on the 11th of April with Macomb, Rushville, Mt. Sterling, and Beardstown competing. The score was 63 to 57 with Beardstown nosing out Rushville's entry with a first in the broad jump by John Musgrove. Other steller performers in this meet were Murray, Swan, Foster, Goff, Fast and Osmer.

Perhaps the most important event of the year was the Spoon River meet held here on April 26th. The conference is composed of Beardstown, Rushville, Macomb, Bushnell, Cuba, Havana, Farmington, Virginia, Industry and Lewistown. This is the major meet of the year with over two hundred entries competing. The 'Tigers' were not supposed to win the meet by forecasters; however, the sterling performances of Murray, Musgrove, Osmer, Foster, Goff, Long, Swan and Duncan enabled us to lead the entire field until the last event. In this, Farmington taking a first and third won the meet. The scores were as follows: Farmington $32\frac{1}{2}$, Beardstown $30\frac{1}{2}$, Cuba $20\frac{1}{2}$, Havana 20, Rushville 18, Macomb 11, Lewistown 8, Bushnell 4 and Virginia 3. The final 880 yard relay was the outstanding event of the day with eight entrants taking the start. Beardstown's great team won the relay in 1:40 with Murray, Vathauer, Musgrove and Osmer running in order.

On Friday of the same week the Tigers acted as host to the rest of the teams in the county. Each member of the Beardstown team took a part in running the meet for the remaining teams in the county. Beardstown chose to remain out of this meet due to the larger enrollment of our school. The meet was won by Arenzville.

After winning the basketball title in the new Central Conference the Tigers set foot for Springfield on May 7 to participate in the new Central conference Track and Field meet held at Lanphier park. There are many outstanding teams in the meet: Feitshans and Lanphier of Springfield, Clinton, Jacksonville, I. S. D. and Beardstown.

Each year another meet is of great importance when the West Central meet is held here to determine the championship. This meet is held May 10 with the student body being excused in the afternoon for the meet. Either Ashland, Rushville or Beardstown have the power to win this meet. Foster of Beardstown and Davis of Rushville will again hold their friendly rivalry in the distance runs. Musgrove and Murray are expected to show their ability.

On May 14 the State High School Athletic Association holds its district meet to determine the contestants that are to go to the state meet held at Champaign during the week-end. Last year John Musgrove and Jack Foster were winners and were entered in the State meet.

On May 17 a new thrill will be added to the track schedule with a night track meet held at Pittsfield. Then on the following week-end the State meet will be held on the 21st of May.

BASEBALL

This is the first year that baseball has ever been conducted at this high school. Two games were played with Macomb and two wins resulted. Several games are yet to be played and are looked forward to with great pleasure. The scores of the Macomb games were 4-2 and 12-6. The baseball squad was made up of Dale Hagger, John Swan, Bill Murray, John Duncan, Ted Jamison, Bob Phelps, John Musgrove, Lionel Riley, Rob Long, Elmer Huss, Clarence D'Camp, Dick Murray, Jack Foster, Harold Fast and Durward Fry.

This event looks very popular and perhaps is here to stay.

TENNIS

A tennis team was formed this year and matches were made with Lanphier high school of Springfield. The first one was held here with Beardstown winning six matches to none for Lanphier. The tennis team consisted of Roy Roberts, Bill Murray, Robert Flamme, Howard Osmer, and Cline Brockman.

WRESTLING

Wrestling was added to the High School athletic program this year under the direction of Mr. Robert Scott, the Junior High coach. Mr. Scott was formerly a member of the University of Illinois wrestling team.

Art Jones, Harold Fast, Homer Welch and Dick Murray were the charter members of the B. H. S. wrestling team. Fast, Welch, and Murray went to the State meet in Champaign, March 4 and 5 and showed up very well considering the small amount of experience they had. Jones was unable to go because of the regional basketball tournament.

Wrestling is a new sport in the B. H. S. but Coach Scott has instructed the Junior high boys in the grunt and groan science and we hope that in future years there will be as great an interest for it developed here as in other schools of this state.

SPRING FOOTBALL

Those boys who have no interest in track, baseball, tennis or other sports were out on the field at times limbering up their kicking and passing for the coming football campaign. No competitive teams are played during the spring but the spirit is there for the game of games.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

1. School starts. Freshies make dive for seats.
2. ADVICE TO FRESHMAN: Do not lick the desk varnish as it is not particularly healthful. If your clothes catch on fire keep cool. When the Gym teacher says "halt" put the foot that is on the ground beside the one that is in the air and remain motionless.
3. Football practice. We think we have a good team; of course, someone has to think so.
6. Labor Day. No school and are we sad!
7. Freshie: "I wish I could find Mr. Miller's room."
8. Teachers forget to assign lessons—(like heck).
9. Class nominations.
10. Class election, Jack Hagerty is Senior president.
13. Everyone looks sleepy, must have had an awful hard week-end.
14. Miss Brock teaches English class how to breathe. First assembly. There was surely a good drum player from St. Louis.
15. First Annual Staff meeting. Try-outs for Senior play "Gun-Shy."
16. No fire, and it surely is cold. Maybe we haven't any coal.
17. Jim Doyle voted for himself in English for vice-president. He got one vote. First football game of the year. We won over White Hall 32-0.
20. Bob Hierman was English class teacher, and he almost went to sleep. A fine teacher he'd make.
21. Annual sales start. Senior class sends Margaret Smashey flowers.
22. Freshies: "How can I nail these boards together?" Mr. McQueen: "Use your head."
23. Seniors won season ticket sales contest. We get a half day holiday some day, we hope.
24. Assembly. Mr. Epler gave us a talk on safety. We played football against Jacksonville and they won 13-7. First High School party.
27. We editors can dig and think till our finger tips are sore, and some poor nut is sure to say, "Oh, I've heard that joke before."
28. Several selling tickets for mystery show.
29. Jones: "Say, you must be rich wearing silk socks to play football in." Murray: "There is a reason; I can get faster runs out of these."
30. Annual Staff meeting, but we don't have anything to talk about—yet.

OCTOBER

1. Another assembly which was enjoyed by everyone. Some of the Freshies started to leave before the assembly was over. Were their faces read! We played football against Bushnell and won 27-0.
4. All is quiet on the school front except for the rain.
5. Can Musgrove recite poetry? School dismissed early for the mystery show. A very fine magician conducts it. We all wonder how he does it.
6. Teacher: "What is a ground hog?" Freshie: "Sausage."
7. Seniors get half-day holiday and I have to go to the dentist (Oh).
8. Teachers institute. No school. Football game at Macomb yesterday ended in a tie.
11. Back after a nice vacation. Annual Staff meeting; Bill Murray comes in football uniform.
12. Columbus Day and no program. A fine school we have! F. F. A. Education Tour to Springfield and Decatur, Illinois.
13. Teachers warn us that tests are coming and we better get down to business.

14. A Senior heard to remark: "The Faculty are merely the stepping stones for students in their progress." We must be careful and not step too hard.

Paul Schaefer: Do you believe in clubs for women?

Pat Cowen: Certainly I do, but only after kindness has failed.

Miss Cross: This examination will be conducted on the honor system. Please take seats three apart and in alternate rows.

Mrs. Volkmar: This is the sunset my daughter painted. She studied abroad you know.

Miss Maltas: Ah, that accounts for it. I had never seen a sunset like that in this country.

Miss Swordes: What was the greatest accomplishment of the Romans?

Nancy Hanks: Speaking Latin.

A lecturer had been invited to address the assembly. He was momentarily at a loss what to say to the students, and asked: Students, about what shall I talk today?

"About three minutes," yells Ted Jamison from the back of the assembly.

Would I were Greta Garbo so,
When I feel the urge to roam,
I could just pack up my books and say,
"Mr. McAllister, I tank I go home."

Miss Mal'as: "What is an idyll?"

Pupil: "An idyll is a man or somone that needs work."

Mr. Weyland: "Define depreciation."

John Beatty: "Depreciation is the decrease in value of anything you own."

John O'Neal (turning to Esther Haworth): "Gee Whiz, if a man took another man's wife wouldn't she be badly depreciated?"

I wish't I was a little rock,
A settin' on a hill:
An' doin' nothin' all day long
But just a settin' still.
I wouldn't eat, I wouldn't drink,
I wouldn't even wash.
But set and set a thousand years,
And rest myself, by Gosh!

Dedicated to John Musgrove.

At the St. Patricks Dance, the orchestra was playing Annie Laurie.

Esther Haworth: "Isn't that Annie Laurie?"

Bill Baker: "Where?"

Dorothy Day was working down at Baker's and making a sundae for a customer.

Customer: "What is the matter with this banana split? It doesn't look right."

Dorothy (after examining it): "Why! I forgot the bananas again."

Betty (after thinking awhile): Tick-Tock! Tick-Tock!

We Love Poem

Me love has went, he done me dirt, me did not know him was a flirt. To them in love, may I forbid, less they been done like I was did.

Bert Phelps: Look, a lion's tracks.

Smith Von Fossen: Sure enough; you go and see where he went and I'll go see where he came from.

"What's this," demanded the surprised wife, "have you bought a saxophone?"
"No," replied her husband, "I just borrowed it from the neighbor."
"What for? You can't play it."
"Neither can he," came the reply, "while I've got it." (Poor Jack Hartzell).

TO STUDENTS:

If you haven't done outside reading for English this year, here is a list of books for next year:

Life with Father or I'm Broke Again, Dad.
A Backward Glance, or Does My Slip Show.
The French Tragedy or Why Didn't I Stick to English?
Ladies of the Press or Who's Next on This Iron?
Personal History or Conversation After a Date.
The Students Choice or High School Parties.
The Robber Barons or Where are My Cigarettes?
The Great Meadow or Rushville Golf Course.
All Quiet on The Western Front or It's Eleven O'clock, Girls.
The Way of All Flesh or Watch The Scales Go Up.
Death in the Afternoon or A Three-Hour Office Training Class.
The Promised Land or Senior Bridge.

Mother's (we doubt) excuse to Teacher: Please excuse Gilbert Larkin for staying home. He had der measles to oblige his father.

Dorothy Hubbell: Call for me tonight at eight sharp.
Ben Coy: O. K. What time will you be ready?

Bill Murray (boastfully): I've had my nose broken three times in the same place."
Marie Maher (sympathetically) : "You really ought to keep your nose out of that place."

A little preview:

To the 4:00 bell—Farewell to arms.
To our Alma Mater—May Time.
To quarter exams—Lost in a Fog.
After a blind date—I'll see you again. (Maybe).
High School Parties—So Rare.
To Hubbell and Coy—The Martins and The Coys.
To Mr. McAllister — Lookin' around corners for you.

The absent-minded man arrived home late and entered his dark bedroom. Suddenly he stiffened.

"Who's under the bed?" he demanded.

"Nobody," replied the burglar.

"Funny," muttered the man, "I could have sworn I heard a noise."

The school teacher was explaining the word "collision": "A collision," he said, "occurs when two bodies come together unexpectedly. Now will you give me an example of a collision?"

"Please, sir," piped one small child, "turns."

A Wee Poem

Breathe's there a man with a soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said
As he bumped his toe against the bed
? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?

Mary Aten: Oh, what a slippery floor this is.
Edwin Brannan: No, I've just had my shoes polished.

Chief of Police, Webster: You're under arrest, for speeding.
Norman Korsmeyer: But, officer, I'm a high school student.
Webster: Ignorance is no excuse.

Maxine Piehler: What would you do if you could play the piano like I can?
Betty Thomas: I'd take lessons.

Miss Cross: Why is your examination paper covered with quotation marks?
John Musgrove: Out of courtesy to Jim Doyle who sat in front of me.
Miss Cross: And why all the question marks?
John: Out of courtesy to Clarence Reither who sat behind me.

Mr. McAllister to his sociology class: If I have talked too long, it's because I haven't my watch with me, and there isn't any clock on the wall.
Bill Kaffenberger: There's a calender behind you.

Dorothy Krohe: Can you keep a secret, Roberta?
Roberta Siekman: Sure, I can, but it's just my luck to tell things to girls who can't.

Mr. Schaeffer: I'll send you some dummies, soon.
Miss Maltas: I have plenty on the Annual Staff.

Freida Daniels: Everyone around here says I have the big head. What do you think about it?
Ruth Brown: Well, personally, I don't think there is much in it.

Joe Orr: I'm going to kiss you.
Margaret Coil: (No answer).
Joe: I said I was going to kiss you.
Margaret: (Silence).
Joe: Say, are you deaf?
Margaret: No, but you're dumb.

Earl Austin: Did you get the third problem?
Eugene Goff: No.
Earl: How near were you to the right answer?
Eugene (thinking): Three seats away.

Carl Fletcher: What are you going to write on for your theme?
Edward Wessel: The "Result of Idleness" and hand in eight blank pages.

John Duncan: When is your birthday?
Jayne Craven: When will it be convenient for you?

Mary Knippenberg: Which would you desire in your husband, wealth or appearance?
Esther Haworth: Appearance, promptly and the sooner, the better.

Take a Hint

Jim Howard: Now don't trouble to see me to the door.
Kay Von Fossen: Oh, It's no trouble. It's a pleasure.
